Important Information

Married applicants may apply for a separate account. If you are applying for Individual Credit, you must complete the Applicant section about yourself and the Co-Applicant about your spouse if:

1. You live in, or the property pledged as collateral, is located in a community property state (AZ, CA, ID, LA, NM, NV, TX, WA, WI),
2. Your spouse will use the account, or
3. You are relying on your spouse's income as a basis for repayment.

If you are relying on income from alimony, child support, or separate maintenance, complete the Co-Applicant section to the extent possible about the person on whose payments you are relying.

If you are applying for Joint Credit with another person, complete the Applicant and Co-Applicant sections. If you are a Wisconsin resident and applying for joint credit with someone other than your spouse, each of you should complete the Applicant section of separate applications. If either or both of you are married, you must also provide information about your spouse and complete the signature section.

Signatures

1. You promise that everything you have stated on this application is correct to the best of your knowledge. If there are any important changes, you will notify us in writing immediately. You also agree to notify us of any change in your name, address, or employment within a reasonable time thereafter. You authorize the credit union to obtain credit reports in connection with this application. If you request, the credit union will tell you the name and address of any credit bureau from which it received a credit report on you. You understand that it is a federal crime to willfully and deliberately provide incomplete or incorrect information on applications made to federal credit unions or state chartered credit unions insured by the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA). You understand that the credit union will rely on the information in this application and your credit report to make its decision.

2. If you are applying for a credit card, you understand that the use of your credit card will constitute acknowledgement of receipt and agreement to the terms of the credit card agreement and disclosures. You grant us a security interest in the following accounts to secure your credit card account. When you are in default, you authorize us to apply the balance in these accounts to any amounts due. If no account number is indicated below, you authorize us to apply the balance in deposits in your individual or joint share accounts at the time of default to pay any amounts due. Share and deposits in the Individual Retirement Account (IRA), and any other account that would lose special tax treatment under state or federal law, if given as security, are not subject to the security interest you have given in your shares and deposits.
